Hours of Service

This is an unofficial interpretation of the federal ‘Commercial Vehicle Drivers Hours of Service’ regulations that take effect on January 1, 2007.
Hours of Service

Accurate reference is on the Internet at:

Refer to the official volumes of the Commercial Vehicle Drivers Hours of Service Regulations, made under the Motor Vehicle Transport Act
History

- Current regulations were first introduced as a countermeasure to fatigue in the late 80’s and were based on the American hours of service rules.

- Hours of Service refers to legal limitations on the hours a commercial vehicle driver can drive/work for a motor carrier on a daily/weekly basis.
The main objective of the new Regulations is to reduce the risk of fatigue-related commercial vehicle collisions by providing drivers with the opportunity to obtain additional rest.
The new rules incorporate current sleep and fatigue research that takes into consideration the bodies circadian rhythm, driver’s health (opportunity to obtain restorative sleep), irregular work shifts and sleep deprivation.
Issues under Current HOS Rules

There must be greater emphasis upon rest. The Current HOS rules:

- are not based on a day (24 hour period);
- allows 16 hours of driving in a ‘day’;
- allows 26 hours of driving in a 30 hour period (using off duty time reduction);
- places no limit on a drivers work shift;
- would permit a driver to work everyday; and
- forces Driver and Carrier alone to assume all responsibility for compliance.
Factors of Driver Fatigue

- Number of hours awake
- Irregular working hours
- Health of the driver
- Work load and practices
- Time of day and/or night
- Insufficient or poor quality sleep
Principal problems with current rules

Little rest, long working hours and irregular rest periods.

Off-duty: 8 h
Driving: 16 h (13+3)

24-hour period
Off-duty: 8 h
Driving: 16 h (10+6)
Principal problems with current rules (con’t)

Length of the ‘Work-Shift’ (36 hours)

- Shift Length: 36 hours
- Off-duty: 21 hours
- Driving: 13 hours
- Work: 15 hours
The New Hours of Service

- The new federal regulation has been enacted and will be proclaimed on January 1, 2007.

- British Columbia plans to adopt these new regulations to mirror the federal hours of service rules.

- Hours of Service regulations are spelled out in federal legislation under the Motor Vehicle Transportation Act (MVTA), applicable to extra-provincial operations.
The Major Changes

1. require/increase minimum daily off-duty time by 25% (8hrs to 10hrs)
2. reduce daily driving time by 18% (16 hrs to 13 hrs)
3. eliminate 8 day cycle
4. increase 7 day cycle to 70 hours
5. eliminate the “Short Change” (once-a-week)
6. allow flexibility with use of 2 hour deferral provision every 2nd day
7. restrict driver’s work shift to 16 hours
The Major Changes (con’t)

8. requirement for carrier to elect a cycle
9. provides for “reset” of a cycle
10. standards for sleeper berths (design, construction)
11. different rules for single and team drivers when using the sleeper berth provision
12. requirement to take at least 24 consecutive hours off once in every 14 day period
The Major Changes (con’t)

13. increased record keeping requirements
14. increased information required on log page
15. allowing drivers to use a CMV for personal use (with restrictions)
16. now shared responsibility for compliance (shipper; carrier; consignee; or other person)
17. new powers for enforcement officers – ‘out-of-service’ orders
What’s New

There are TEN new reference points:

1. Day
2. Work-shift
3. Deferral of off duty
4. Cycle (7 day & 14 day)
5. Reset
6. Sleeper Birth – Single & Team Drivers
7. 14 day requirement
8. Personal Use
9. Log Page
10. Time Records for local drivers
Day

- A 24-hour period beginning at the time designated by the carrier

- Each ‘day’ is independent, and there are certain on-duty; off-duty & driving limits for each ‘day’

- The start time of the day remains the same throughout each cycle

- To change the start time of the day:
  - Reset and Start a new cycle
Day (con’t)

Work-shift

Current
- After 13 hours of driving you have to take 8 consecutive hours off duty before you can drive again
- After 15 hours of on-duty you have to take 8 consecutive hours off duty before you can drive again

New Rules
- After 13 hours of driving you have to take a minimum 8 consecutive hours off duty before you can drive again (same as current rules!)
- After 14 hours of on-duty you have to take a minimum 8 consecutive hours off duty before you can drive again
Work-shift (con’t)

Current

* No restriction on length of work shift
* Short off-duty periods extend the time between rest breaks

Rules

* Maximum of 16 hours (elapsed time)
* Time period which starts the instant you are on duty after having just taken minimum 8 hours off duty
* Includes all time
* 8 consecutive hours off-duty resets the work shift.
* Sleeper berth rest periods are not counted in the 16 hour duty period when they qualify for the sleeper berth rest provision
What are the Rules for the Work-Shift?

- No driving after 16 hours of elapsed time
- Driving time $\leq$ 13 hours
- No driving after 14 hours on-duty
Mandatory Off-Duty Time After 16 Hour Work-Shift

WORK SHIFT

- Work Shift ≤ 16
- Driving ≤ 13
- No driving after 14 hours on duty

- Work Shift ≤ 16
- Driving ≤ 13
- No driving after 14 hours on duty
Deferral of Off Duty

Current Rule

- May reduce the 8-consecutive hour off-duty period to a minimum of 4 hours-once in a 7 day period

Rules

- 48 hour averaging allows a driver to reduce the daily off duty requirement of 10 hours by up to 2 hours provided the 2 hours is not part of the 8 consecutive hours
- This time is added to the 8 consecutive hours on the second day
- This provision may be exercised every 2nd day if a driver chooses.
Time Deferral (Up to 2 hours per day)

Driver has ‘deferred’ 2 hours from Day #1 to Day #2

Notes:

1) The 2 hours ‘deferred’ from Day #1 are added to the 8-hour rest period on the following day (Day #2 - 1400-1600)

2) On Day #2 – Must still have the 2 ‘Off-Duty’ Hours that are not part of any mandatory 8-hour off-duty block (0300-0400) & (0900-1000).

- CMV is unloaded
- Not towing a trailer
- Maximum of 75 km/day
- Odometer readings are recorded and
- Driver is not subject of an OOS declaration
The Log Page (New Additions)

Additions to the Log Page are:

3. When a CMV is used for personal use (odometer readings)

Filling out the form:

1. Every hour of the 24-hour day must be accounted for
2. Starting from the left side of the grid (midnight), draw a horizontal line within the appropriate duty status field to account for time spent in that duty status, in 15 minute increments
3. Draw a vertical line where a change of duty status occurs
4. Total the hours spent in each of the three duty status’ at the right side of the form. These must add up to 24 hours

3. Within one time block, time spent in each of the two duty status ("driving" and "on-duty") can be "bundled"
4. 24-hour totals for each of the three duty status must be recorded at the right side of the form, which must add up to 24 hours
5. Use the remarks column to indicate when the driver utilizes the off-duty deferral provision (48-hour averaging) or extends the 13-hour driving limit and reduces the required daily off-duty time due to adverse driving conditions or in emergencies

• There are 10 problems in this presentation (#1 through #10)

• Each problem consists of Graph Grid Log pages for two consecutive days (First Day & Second Day)

• Each problem is totally independent of all the others
1. The first seven problems deal with a single driver; problems eight and nine deal with single sleeper berth and the 10th is a team driver as part of a co-driving team (sleeper berth)

2. May we suggest:
   - Print out the 10 problems (pages 5 to 15), because printed copies may be easier to examine and to use for notes

3. Examine each problem separately and identify ALL hours of service violations
   - Don’t look at the solution too quickly! (It is far more beneficial to gain understanding if you spend time finding the violations before looking at the solution!)
